Tinsukia College; 3rd December, 2024: On first December, 2024, The NSS volunteers of Tinsukia College, in collaboration with the Gender Champion and Red Ribbon Clubs, Tinsukia College, successfully organized an insightful awareness talk on World AIDS Day. Mr. Ankit Sen was the resource person. In his speech, Mr. Sen enlightened the audience about right to health and the fight against disease such as AIDS.

In connection with the AIDS day, the NSS unit of Tinsukia College also took centre stage at the World AIDS Day event organized by the District Health Society, Tinsukia, and Assam State AIDS Control Board, in collaboration with NHM, NTEP, AII ICTCS, and TI-NGOs. The program began with a 200-participant Awareness Rally, with active participation from the NSS volunteers, who marched from Tinsukia Civil Hospital to ASHA Griha, Bordoloi Nagar, spreading crucial messages about HIV/AIDS prevention and stigma reduction. Following the rally, the NSS unit of Tinsukia College showcased their leadership and communication skills during an Extempore Speech Competition, engaging the audience with insightful perspectives on combating the AIDS epidemic. In the district level Extempore Speech, Ms. Aradhana Kumari bags the 2nd prize. The event concluded with an Open Meeting that emphasized community-driven efforts to end HIV/AIDS and promote inclusive healthcare, highlighting the significant contribution of the NSS unit in fostering awareness and social change.
