Two Day Youth Exchange Programme between Akam Foundation and Tinsukia College on Gender and Sexuality.

A two day Youth Exchange Programme was organised by Gender Champions Club of Tinsukia College in collaboration with Akam Foundation on 2nd and 3rd September. The programme began by signing an MOU between Tinsukia College and Akam Foundation in presence of the Principal of Tinsukia College Dr. Surjya Chutia, Ankit Sen the Nodal Teacher of Gender Champion Club, Dr. Mayuri Sharma Baruah and Dr. Roshmi Dutta members of the club and the noted gender activist Rituparna Neog, Founder-Director Akam Foundation, Associate Vice-Chairperson of Transgender Welfare Board, Govt of Assam along with her team members. The MOU was signed to carry forward work on gender justice & education along with youth development. The workshop was attended by 26 students who enthusiastically participated in all the sessions and activities. The objectives of the two-day workshop was to provide the students with a comprehensive understanding of the key concepts and issues related to gender and sexuality and what they can do to create awareness surrounding these issues. Through interactive sessions and engaging activities, the workshop aimed to promote awareness, knowledge, and inclusivity, empowering individuals to challenge societal norms and stereotypes and initiate social actions within their campus. Participants could develop a foundational understanding of gender identity, sexual orientation and identifying issues related to above mentioned topics through intersectional lens or the intersections of gender and sexuality with other social factors. By the end of the workshop, participants were equipped with the necessary tools to foster a more inclusive and accepting environment in their personal and professional lives, mobilisation methods, rapport building among communities and advocacy.

As facilitators, members of Akam Foundation Pinky Biswash, Nabajyoti Hazarika, Kabyashree Boruah, and Reyansh Borthakur deliberated on various topics and enlightened the students on various issues related to gender and sexuality and also created awareness regarding the same. The founder- director Rituparna Neog also deliberated on various nuances associated with gender and sexuality thereby motivating the students to collectively bring a change in the society by enlightening people on these issues. The programme was also attended and volunteered by Dr. Kakalee Das, Assistant Professor of English and Ms. Lipika Buragohain, Assistant Professor of Geography, Tinsukia College.
