International Mother Language Day, 21/02/2023

The Cell for Women's Studies and Development (CWSD), Tinsukia College has celebrated International Mother Language Day on 21/02/2023. Smt. Bontimala Devi, Retired Head of the Dept. of Assamese, Tinsukia College was the invited speaker on this occasion. She delivered a thought provoking lecture on the topic "Antorjatik Matribhasha Divas aru Axomiya Bhasha" explaining the significance, importance and necessity of celebrating International Mother Language Day with special reference to the Assamese language. On her lecture she cited different examples to indicate how various languages are gradually becoming extinct due to the negligence of the so called educated people and pointed out that it is the need of the hour to take appropriate steps to save different languages of our country.

Smt. Ruma Payeng, Assistant Professor, Dept. of Philosophy, Tinsukia College had mesmerized the audience by reciting a poem written in Miching Language.

A campaign to create awareness among students was initiated by CWSD in which students of the college having different mother tongue wrote the sentence " I LOVE MY MOTHER LANGUAGE " in their respective mother languages in a chart paper and that was displayed on this occasion.

Dr. Pallavi Gogoi, Assistant Professor, Dept. of Chemistry, acted as the host of the program which was ended with vote of thanks offered by Smt. Rashmita Borkotoky, Assistant Professor of Economics, Tinsukia College.
